Misattributed []. Appearances are a glimpse of the unseen. Anaxagoras, frg.B 21a; Better to die on your feet than live on your knees. This is usually attributed to Emiliano Zapata, but sometimes to Aeschylus, who is credited with expressing similar sentiments in Prometheus Bound: "For it would be better to die once and for all than to suffer pain for all one's life".

Dear Recovering Grace Reader,. Many of you are aware that we have run a number of articles in which young ladies have chronicled an unusual form of emotional and sexual harassment experienced while working for Bill Gothard at the IBLP [Institute in Basic Life Principles] Headquarters [HQ] in Oak Brook, IL. In addition to these published accounts, we have continued to receive emails and ...

Although each stream looks alike outwardly, they are vastly different. The one on the left is known in our literature as the Sons of Cain. They are full of positive energy and are the craftsmen of the world, the three-messengers, who carve their way through life, rather enjoying the obstacles which they know strengthen the character; they
